 Please note that the dates for above mentioned tournaments are subject to change based on the event registrations. Typically, if a tournament doesn't have enough teams register that division may not make and play, so we could possibly move up or down to keep that scheduled event. We will always make an effort to reschedule tournaments on the original dates within the specified age group, but we are general at the mercy of the tournament directors. All tournament fees are required, even if you athlete is unable to attend. This ensures that the rest of the teams do not make up the difference for the tournament. Game times and schedules are typically not released until Wednesday or Thursday night (sometimes Friday morning) of the tournament weekend.

You may raise the entire amount of your season cost through fundraising. We encourage you to do so. All money raised qualifies as tax deduction through our 501c3

Eyecan Athletics AAU TEAM FAQs

1. When are team monthly payments due?

Payments will be automatically charged to card on file on the first of every month for the season, with each payment totaling around $325 a month. Eyecan Athletics will attempt any failed payments subsequently after the first failed payment, up to the third day. After the third day or third failed payment, a late fee and administrative fee of $25.00 will be assessed as a separate charge. If the account is not brought by the 5th of each month, the athlete will be removed from all team activities. If monetary circumstances changes throughout the season, please email teams@eyecanathletics.com or call (832) 402-4331.

2. Will there be any tournaments outside of Houston and/or surrounding areas?

There are not any plans to have any tournaments outside of Houston and the surrounding area. Individual teams may be invited to qualifying tournaments that may lead to out-of-town opportunities and those will be communicated on a case-by-case basis. They will typically be in the following cities: Dallas, San Antonio, Austin, and Bryan.

3. Does Eyecan offer an assistant in covering the season costs?

Each family is required to pay their monthly as agreed upon and mentioned above. We do not offer any assistance but we do offer ways to help offset some of the cost through fundraisers and sponsorship opportunities. If at any time an athlete is unable to continue through the season, or if they quit, NO REFUNDS will be given. All funds are used upon receipt. Eyecan Athletics will take in consideration athletes that are affected through injury only. We will require all medical documentation to be submitted via email to teams@eyecanathletics.com where it will be evaluated by the staff. A decision will be rendered via email to the affected party.

4. What are the fundraising activities available for members of the AAU teams?

Eyecan Athletics will be hosting a Free throw Shoot -A-Thon on February 24, 2024, beginning at 12:00 p.m. Each athlete will collect pledges and donations for each free throw shot they shoot and make. A page link will be set each for each athlete that can be shared via text or other social media platforms. Individual prizes will be awarded to the athletes that collect the most donations for this event.

Our other fundraising activities include our calendar raffle where each athlete must get a donation in the amount of the calendar date, More information will be communicated at a later date.

5. What are the fundraising funds used to cover?

Fundraising funds are used to cover organizational costs as well as season dues. It also includes videography for promotional and marketing purposes. Each athlete has the opportunity to cover their entire season through their fundraising efforts that is $1795.00 per player or $1995.00 on a payment plan.

Eyecan Athletics AAU TEAM FAQs

6. Are there any additional training opportunities available for the athletes?

Yes, athletes always have an opportunity to participate in additional training, outside of their scheduled AAU season trainings at a 50% discount. Eyecan Athletics will not allow substitutions for missing trainings if an athlete is a participant in both the AAU team and individual training. Athletes have a chance to come and do training outside of the days that are listed for the AAU season. There will be no make-ups for any training missed for any reason.

7. What happens if my child is unable to attend a tournament game, practice or training due to other activities or scheduling conflicts?

There are no make ups and each athlete will still be required to pay the associated fees. This policy allows us to be fair and equitable to all participants. We, as an organization, work to provide a detailed schedule prior to the season in order for adjustments to be made. It is the requirement of athletes and families to work to ensure proper plan so we can execute as an organization.

8. What is the chain of command for communication if there are any issues throughout the season?

Please try to resolve any issues with the Head coach via phone or face-to-face communication first before escalating the issue. At Eyecan Athletics, we utilize the 24-hour rule, which means any game issues, practice issues, or playing time issues will not be discussed until twenty-four hours after the event. If you are unsatisfied with the answer, we ask that you reach out to the head coach directly then to the Team AAU Director, Teams@eyecanathletics.com. If after speaking with him and you still feel like the issue or concern has not been resolved, please speak with Lakeiva Noel: lakeiva@eyecanathletics.com

9. How will the teams communicate throughout the season?

Eyecan Athletics will use TEAMLINKT for our Teams communication. Please make sure to download the application. If anything changes throughout the season, it will be communicated through TEAMLINKT practices times schedule changes events and happenings etc.

10. When will the first meeting be held for more questions that may arise?

Each athlete and family will be required to attend a mandatory zoom session. There are two options available.

- Option 1: Saturday February 3rd at 12:00 p.m. CLICK HERE OPTION 1
- Option 2: Saturday, February 3rd at 5:00 p.m. CLICK HERE OPTION 2
